Enchantment is back!

We are the company who performed Cinderella at your assembly last year!

Enchantment Theatre Company is also a guest of Meadowbrook in the summer months providing students from all over a fantastic two-week program called CAMP ENCHANTMENT. CAMP ENCHANTMENT incorporates having fun, making friends, working as a team, learning Enchantment's unique style of theater, and performing original work for a live audience. It has been so successful that Meadowbrook has invited us back this spring! We will be visiting during the second week of Meadowbrook's Spring Break to offer an exciting one-week workshop! We hope to see you there

Enchantment's Magic of Masks Workshop at Meadowbrook

Enchantment Teaching Artists start the workshop with theater games to inspire the students to build confidence and work as an ensemble. We then explore exercises which teach acting skills including: energy, eye contact, spatial awareness, teamwork, ensemble rhythm, stage directions, stage movement, improvisational skills and storytelling. Next, Enchantment Teaching Artists and students work on character development using puppets and masks. Our puppets and masks are created by the designers we use for Enchantment's professional productions and students love them! We then introduce choreography and shaping a story. We include setting, characters, world of the play, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution and moral/lesson. Using all of the physical theater skills the students have acquired, and with Enchantment Teaching Artists encouraging them, the students create original work to perform for an invited audience. And all will be Enchanted!

So come on out and join the fun!

Enchantment Theatre Company's Educational Mission

We believe the experience of live theater in performance and in the classroom can catalyze transformation, foster full self-expression, and generate a true sense of community that will profoundly impact the lives of young people and their teachers. While an important aspect of our mission is to share our productions with audiences throughout the region and the world, our education and community outreach programs allow us to connect with our audiences on another level, involving them directly in the exciting process of creating theater.
