

Small-Ball Basketball

Hosted by

The Meadowbrook School

WHAT'S UNIQUE ABOUT THE "SMALL-BALL" PROGRAM?

Child Centered Approach

We use age appropriate equipment to guarantee maximum success for each child.

Individual Instruction

Coaches work to develop appropriate techniques and skill sets for each child.

Equal Participation

Coaches organize and referee all games to ensure players participate equally. Games are played using a 4 v 4 format.

Age Appropriate Equipment

Each participant receives a Small-Ball basketball team T-shirt and participation certificate.

WHAT IS THE SMALL -BALL PROGRAM?

Small-Ball Basketball is a noncompetitive youth basketball league designed for children in Kindergarten Through 3rd Grade. The program combines instructional strategies with technical expertise from Roger Galo, founder of The Aim Center for Shot Development. Each one-hour session includes a 20 minute instructional period.

The 8-Week Winter Session Begins:

Saturday, January 10th, 2009

Games are played on Saturday mornings in The Shuttleworth gymnasium, located on the campus of Meadowbrook School.
