French Total Immersion Club & National French Contest 2019-2020

Meadowbrook School is offering an immersion style French club with Madame Suzanne Cordon. Students in grades K -6th are eligible. The children will be fully exposed to the French language and immersed in the culture as they enjoy French snacks and engage in authentic listening activities and games based on real-world situations in the language. The club will prepare the students for the National French Contest and will be as educational as it will be fun!

The students in first through sixth grade will participate in the National French Contest which will be held in the World Language room on Wednesday, February 19th. The Kindergarten students will not attend the February 19th session.
